RECTORAL DECREE No. 138 dated 07.02.2017

Selective procedure for covering 12 posts of University Professor with tenure – grade I category – by a call in accordance with art. 18, paragraph 1, Law 240/2010 and University Regulations enacted with DR no. 977 of 9.12.2012 as modified.

THE RECTOR

GIVEN Law 240 dated 30.12.2010;
GIVEN the code for the protection of personal data issued by Decree 196/2003;
GIVEN Rectoral Decree (R.D.) 977 dated 09.12.2013, which issued the Regulation of the University of Bologna governing the call for first and second grade Professors pursuant to arts. 18 and 24 of Law 240/2010 as amended;
GIVEN art. 19 of Decree no. 33/2013, as amended by art. 18 of Decree no. 97/2016, on the obligation to publicise calls for applications and the assessment criteria adopted by Committees;
GIVEN Ministerial Decree 855 dated 30.10.2015 on the redetermination of competition sectors;
GIVEN the request for coverage of a University Professorship with tenure approved by the Department of Medical and Surgical Sciences;
GIVEN the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors on 17.01.2017 and on 31.01.2017;
HAVING CHECKED the availability of funds;

DECREE

ART. 1

The following selective procedure for covering 12 posts of University Professor with tenure, full category is announced to be covered by a call in accordance with art. 18, paragraph 1, Law 240/2010:

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING

Competition Sector: 09/A3 – Industrial Design, Mechanical Construction and Metallurgy
Subject Group [SSD]: ING-IND/15 - Industrial Engineering Design and Methods
Ref. O18I2017/643
Place of employment: Bologna Number of Posts: 1

| Max No. Publications | 12 |
Specific teaching and scientific functions

Type of teaching commitment: the teaching functions must be consistent with the specific requirements of the ING-IND/15 Subject Group – Industrial Engineering Design and Methods. The Department envisages that the successful candidate will make a teaching commitment of at least 350 hours in total, in the areas addressed by the Department of Industrial Engineering (Mechanical Engineering and Energy Engineering) and in the area of Industrial Product Design, divided among teaching, supplementary teaching and student services, including at least 120 hours of lectures in each academic year.

Type of scientific commitment: The scientific commitment required will address topics specific to the ING-IND/15 Subject Group, as indicated in the official declaration. In particular, research will look at the theoretical aspects and applications of CAD systems, assisted design and modelling, interactive simulation, virtual reality and augmented reality, as applied in industrial environments. Additionally, appropriate investigative work is needed into the analytical methodologies supporting CAE (Computer Aided Engineering) for predicting strain in mechanical constructions, with a particular focus on the manipulation and analysis of complex three-dimensional geometries.

Consideration will be given to the organisation, management and coordination of national and international research centres or groups, or participation therein, and other research activities such as the management or participation in the editorial committees of journals; receipt of national and international awards and recognitions for research activities relevant to the competition sector.

Consideration will also be given to the supervision of first and second-cycle dissertations and PhD theses, the conduct of seminars, practice sessions and the tutoring of students.

Consideration will be given to the participation as a speaker at congresses and conferences of international interest relevant to the competition sector.

Consideration will also be given to the overall weight of the candidate's scientific production, as well as its intensity and continuity over time in relation to the length of such scientific activity, based on the curriculum and the list of publications, considering its consistency with the discipline addressed.

Consideration will be given to research experience abroad and the consistency of the international collaborations.

Consideration will also be given to any adequately documented period when research activities were involuntarily suspended and other periods of leave or stand-by established by current laws, excluding those allowed for study purposes.

Publications presented for the procedure

The assessment will be based on the following criteria:

- a) originality, innovative nature, methodological rigour and importance of each publication procedure;
- b) consistency of each publication with the MAT/02 Subject Group or closely-related inter-disciplinary topics;
- c) scientific importance of each publication and its readership within the scientific community.

In the case of collaborative work, the personal contribution of the candidate will be assessed primarily by reference to the scientific consistency of the publications with the curriculum presented and with any presentations made at conferences.

Specific teaching and scientific functions

Art. 2, para. 3, of the Regulation governing the call for full and associate Professors issued by RD 977/2013

The Professor will carry out teaching activities in compliance with the University's instructions on the teaching commitment of full professors, with particular reference to topics relevant to the AGR/02 Subject Group. The Professor must therefore carry out research activities, giving priority to the above topics, taking responsibility for research and training projects, and innovation and technology transfer activities carried out in collaboration with agencies and firms, supervising the activities of young researchers and trainees, participating in the AGR/02 research group of the Department of Agricultural Sciences, with interdisciplinary links with other scientific areas within the University of Bologna and other Italian and international Universities.

Teaching activities

Art. 5, para. 1, of the Regulation governing the call for full and associate Professors issued by RD 977/2013

Consideration will be given to the volume and continuity of the activities, with particular reference to the course units and modules for which responsibility was taken as the head of teaching activities within the AGR/02 Subject Group on degree programmes within the agricultural area. The assessment will focus on the roles covered in the five years prior to the call for applications: volume will be estimated with reference to the total number of teaching credits delivered, bearing in mind the degree of continuity (annual average of credits).

Supplementary teaching and student service activities.

Art. 5, paras. 2 and 3, of the Regulation governing the call for full and associate Professors issued by RD 977/2013

| Research activities | Art. 6, para. 1, of the Regulation governing the call for full and associate Professors issued by RD 977/2013
The standard for research activities will take into consideration activities involving the organisation, management and coordination of national and international research centres, whether public or private, scientific responsibility for national or international research projects as coordinator or head of the operational unit, as well as other research and coordination activities such as the management of, or participation in, the editorial committees of journals with an impact factor.
The standard for the ownership of patents will take into consideration those relevant to the AGR/02 Subject Group.
Receipt of national and international awards and recognitions for activities relevant to the AGR/02 Subject Group.
The standard for participation at conferences and conventions is having participated in international-level conventions as an invited speaker or chairman.
The standards regarding the intensity and continuity of scientific production are those envisaged for the National Scientific Qualification in the AGR/02 Subject Group. |

| Publications presented for the procedure | Art. 6, para. 3, of the Regulation governing the call for full and associate Professors issued by RD 977/2013
The standard for the assessment of scientific publications is based on such criteria as originality, innovative nature, methodological rigour, relevance and consistency of each publication with the AGR/02 Subject Group, scientific importance of the journal or other outlet making the publication and its readership within the scientific community.
The individual contributions made by the candidate to collaborative works will be determined analytically by reference to the notes made about them i.e. to statements made by co-authors that evidence the contribution made by the candidate. In the absence of formal references, the individual contribution will be assessed in terms of its consistency with other scientific activity and the evident specific competences of the candidate with respect to the other co-authors.
The Commission will make use of the following bibliometric indicators when assessing publications: total number of citations, h-index, average and total impact factor. |

The candidate will carry out scientific research, including at international level, on matters relevant to corporate finance. The successful candidate will be required to lecture for a total of 120 hours, sometimes in English and primarily in the above areas.

Quality standards

TEACHING ACTIVITIES

Maximum points attributable: 30%

- Teaching activities
  - Volume and continuity of the activities carried out, with particular reference to:
    - the course units/modules for which the candidate was responsible;
    - consistency of the teaching activities with the subject group and the specific profile indicated in this call for applications;
    - the language in which the lessons were held;
    - teaching of course units at internationally-recognised Universities;

- Supplementary teaching and student service activities.
  - Credit may be given for other teaching activities, such as the supervision of second-cycle dissertations, courses for doctoral students and the supervision of PhD theses, and other supplementary teaching and student service activities.

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Maximum points attributable: 55%

- Research activities
  - Organisation, management and coordination of national and international research centres or groups, or participation therein.
  - Receipt of national and international awards and recognitions for research activities.
  - Overall weight of the candidate’s scientific production and its intensity and continuity over time, excluding any adequately documented periods when research activities were involuntarily suspended, with particular reference to the performance of parental duties.
  - Organisation of conferences with international visibility.
  - Management of or participation in the editorial committees of journals with an international circulation.

- Publications presented for the procedure
  - Originality, innovative nature, methodological rigour and importance of each publication
  - Scientific importance of the editorial positioning of each publication and its dissemination within the scientific community (including reference to the assessment criteria of VQR/GEV13 and ANVUR, and to accredited international benchmarks, such as ABS).
Determination of the above parameters may make use of one or more of the following indicators, by consulting the Scopus or ISI Web of Science databases:

- Total number of publications held on the database
- Total and/or average number of citations
- Total and/or average impact factor

The above criteria may be appropriately weighted using a factor that reflects the consistency of each publication with the Subject Group addressed by this call for applications.

Analytical determination, in part by reference to criteria recognised by the international scientific community concerned, of the individual contribution made by the candidate to collaborative works. With regard to scientific publications prepared on a collaborative basis, if the individual contribution is clear from the publication or the self-certification of the candidate attached to the application, or in any case can be determined by reference to criteria recognised by the international scientific community concerned, the score attributed to the individual co-authors, including any bibliometric indicators, will be weighted using the following coefficients: 1 (full) up to a maximum of 3 authors, while the scores for works with 4 or more signatories will be weighted by the coefficient determined using the formula 3/n, where n is the number of co-authors (e.g. 0.75 for 4 authors, 0.60 for five authors and so on).

Specific teaching and scientific functions

The Professor will carry out research into methodological and applied statistics, with particular reference to multivariate analysis and classification methods.

The Professor will teach basic (first cycle) and advanced (second cycle) course units relevant to the SECS-S/01 subject group. The candidate must have the ability and experience to carry out teaching activities in English, as well as in Italian. If necessary, the Professor should be willing to carry out teaching activities in locations other than the place of employment, in compliance with University rules, and willing to hold institutional appointments.

Quality standards
| Teaching activities | Points will be awarded to candidates that carried out teaching activities, averaging at least 60 hours per academic year over the past three years, on topics related to basic and advanced statistics. Special consideration will be given to: course units taught abroad at high-profile institutions; course units taught on foreign - if significant - and Italian doctoral programmes, and the volume and continuity of teaching activities. Maximum points available for this heading: 25. |
| Supplementary teaching and student service activities | Points will be awarded for the supervision of PhD dissertation. These activities must be self-certified by the candidate. Maximum points available for this heading: 5. |

| RESEARCH ACTIVITIES | Maximum points attributable: 58 |
| Research activities | 1) Consideration will be given to the candidate's activities involving the organisation, management and coordination of national and international research centres, or participation therein, and other research activities such as the management of, or participation in, the editorial committees of journals and internationally-renowned academic research centres. The candidate must self-certify these activities, providing all the details needed to assess the type of activity involved. 2) Ownership of patents (with explanation of circumstances, e.g. for the development of software). 3) Receipt of national and international awards and recognitions for research activities. The candidate must self-certify these activities, providing all the details needed to assess the type of activity involved. 4) Participation as a speaker at congresses and conferences of international interest. The candidate must self-certify these activities, providing all the details needed to assess the participation, by location and type, distinguishing between invited and submitted speeches. Maximum total points available for the above four items: 12. 5) Overall weight of the candidate's scientific production, as well as its intensity and continuity over time. Maximum points attributable under this heading: 6. |
| Publications presented for the procedure | Points will be awarded to candidates who, between 2010 and the date of this call for applications, have obtained 5 journal publications (already published or even just accepted, whether in printed or electronic format). The journals carrying the publications must be included on the list of class A journals for the 13 D/1 sector prepared by ANVUR and updated to 21 July 2016. Due account will be taken of maternity leave and other periods of leave or stand-by envisaged by law, other than those for study reasons. The assessment of scientific publications will be based on the following criteria: a) originality, innovative nature, methodological rigour and importance of each publication; b) consistency of each publication; c) scientific importance of the journal or other outlet making the publication and its readership within the scientific community; |
d) analytical determination, in part by reference to criteria recognised by the international scientific community concerned, of the individual contribution made by the researcher to collaborative works.

Maximum points available for this item: 40.

ART. 2

Subjective requirements for admission to the procedure.

The procedure is open to the following candidates:

a) candidates having passed the state examinations pursuant to art. 16 of Italian Law 240/2010 for the sector in question or another sector in the same macro-sector and for the functions described or higher functions, provided they are not already employed for such higher functions; Those who are in one of the situations referred to in art. 4 of Ministerial Decree 855/2015 on redetermination of the competition sectors can also participate

b) candidates who have the suitability requisites laid down in Italian Law no. 210/1998 for the teaching grade corresponding to that for which the call is issued, limited to the duration of the call;

c) professors already employed by other universities on the date of entry into force of Italian Law no. 240/2010 in the teaching grade corresponding to that for which the call for applications is issued;

d) scholars who are stably employed abroad in university-level research or teaching activities of a position equal to that for which the call is issued, according to the correspondence tables defined by the Ministry.

The selection procedure is not open to any persons who, at the time of submission of the application, are related by blood or by marriage up to the fourth degree, to a professor or full-time researcher working in the Department requesting the position, or to the Rector, Director General or a member of the Board of Governors of the University. Equally the selection is not open to the spouse or partner of a professor or full-time researcher working in the Department requesting the position.

The candidate shall meet the requirements laid down in this article on the deadline for the submission of applications, which must also continue to be met for the duration of the procedure itself.

Any variations in the compliance with the requirements for application must be promptly notified to the Teaching and Research Staff Recruitment Office.

Candidates are admitted to the procedure with reserve. At any time, the Rector has the right, with justification, to exclude any candidates from the procedure for not meeting the established admission requirements.
ART. 3
Presentation of the application

Applications must be received no later than 30 days following the date of publication of the notice for this call for applications in the Official Journal of the Italian Republic (Gazzetta Ufficiale), 4th Special Series – Calls for applications exclusively in one of the following forms:

The following documents in pdf format must be saved in a single compressed folder (zip file):

1. A photocopy of a valid identity document, in pdf;
2. their application, drawn up following the model provided in Annex "A", in pdf;
3. The curriculum of their scientific and teaching activities. The Curriculum, duly dated and signed, shall contain the equivalent declaration of certification, pursuant to articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree no. 445/00, stating their possession of all the requirements laid down therein, in pdf.
4. The publications the candidate intends to submit for evaluation by the Board, in pdf.

Applications for participation in the procedure and CVs should be presented in Italian or English. Publications should be presented in Italian or English, except in cases where the possibility of producing the same publications in languages other than those listed above is indicated in the specific schedule referring to the procedure as per art. 1.

Publications in languages other than those permitted by the announcement can be considered only if accompanied by an official translation certification issued pursuant to the provisions in force. Information about this can be found on the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs: http://www.esteri.it/mae/it/italiani_nel_mondo/serviziconsolari/traduzionelegalizzazionedocumentih tml.

Publications presented in a language different from those permitted in the announcement will not be assessed.

It is reminded that certified e-mail accounts do not permit the sending of annexes which, together, total more than 50 Megabyte.

Candidates submitting annexes which exceed this limit must submit a first e-mail specifying that the annexes or parts thereof will be submitted in subsequent e-mails, which in any case must be submitted within the deadline for the submission of applications, and again using the "pec" certified e-mail system.

b) by hand or by registered letter with advice of receipt, addressed to Magnifico Rettore (Rector) of the University of Bologna - Personnel Area - Piazza G. Verdi 3, 40126 Bologna BO.

The application must reach the Administration no later than the mandatory term of 30 days starting from the day after the date of publication of the call for applications in the Official Journal of the Italian Republic.

Any applications delivered or received beyond such date, even if dispatched prior to the deadline, will be rejected. The postmark date shall not constitute proof of dispatch, but the applications must be received by the University by the set deadline.
The date of receipt of the application is proven by:
- in the case of direct submission: the date indicated in the receipt signed and issued by the staff of this administration authorised to receive the applications;
- in the case of shipment: the date of receipt indicated on the advice of delivery signed by the staff authorised to receive the applications.

The envelope must indicate the Name and Surname of the Candidate, the Sector and the subject area for which the application is being made.

In the envelope, candidates shall include the following documents with their application, drawn up following the model provided in Annex "A":

- d) List of attachment to the application.

For hand delivery of the application, the Staff Recruitment Office, P.zza Verdi 3, Bologna, 1st floor, is open on:
- Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday 9.00 - 11.15 am.
- Tuesday and Thursday 2.30 to 3.30 p.m.

Submission of the application beyond the set deadline, or sent in a manner that does not comply with the above instructions, will lead to exclusion from the competition procedure.

ART. 4

Publications for Evaluation

1) For the purposes of evaluating the publications, publications or texts accepted for publication according to the laws in force as well as essays included in collective works and articles published in paper or digital journals, with the exclusion of internal notes and departmental reports, are acceptable.

The publications will be evaluated by the Board exclusively for the purposes of this selection procedure.

N.B. Please note that the evaluation board referred to in article 6 below will evaluate only the overall consistency of the scientific production, where this can be inferred from the documentation produced by the candidate in his/her application, in one of the following cases:
- if the candidate submits more publications than the maximum number specified in the call
- if the candidate encloses the publications in a manner that does not comply with the provisions of article 3 of the call

ART. 5

Withdrawal from the Procedure

Candidates may withdraw from the procedure in writing to the Teaching and Research Staff Recruitment Office by e-mail to apos.concorsidocenti@unibo.it, including a signed declaration in PDF format accompanied by a photocopy of a valid ID document.

ART. 6

Evaluation Boards and evaluation procedure

The Board is appointed pursuant to the provisions contained in art. 8 of the Regulations governing competitive procedures for ordinary and associate professors.
The Board shall complete its work within three months of the date of appointment by the Rector.

The Board appoints a Chairman and a Secretary from among its members, works only in the presence of all members and resolves by absolute majority vote of its members. The Board may adopt remote joint working methods.

The selection is based on the comparative evaluation made on the basis of the criteria established in advance by the Board; these criteria must be established in compliance with the quality standards laid down in articles 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of the University Regulation and specified in the call for applications.

The assessment criteria are published on the University's website, on the pages dedicated to each procedure.

At the end of the works, the Board will draft a ranking list for the available number of places, selecting the candidate, or in the event of more than one available place, the candidates who are most qualified to cover the post for which the call was issued.

ART. 7
Conclusion of the Procedure

The deeds of the selection procedure are approved by order of the Rector within thirty days of their delivery to the Rector's Offices.

Within two months of the approval of the deeds, the Department requesting the filling of the post shall resolve on the proposal to the Board of Governors to recruit the selected candidate.

The Approval of the deeds and reports of the Board are published on the University Portal on the page https://apers.unibo.it/provalcomreclutamento/provalcom_portale.aspx.

ART. 8
Processing of personal data

The candidates' personal data will be processed exclusively for using the methods provided for in the laws in force and strictly for the purposes of managing this selection procedure.

ART. 9
Referral Clause

For any matters not governed by this call for applications, please refer to the University Regulations governing the recruitment of "I and II fascia" professors, implementing art.s 18 and 24 of Italian Law 240/2010 and amendments – link to the Regulation https://apers.unibo.it/ProvalcomGestione/leggi/DR97709122013.pdf
